Billy Ray Cyrus

The country music superstar performs two shows at the Riviera

Billy Ray Cyrus, the "Achy Breaky He superstar, will headline two concerts Friday and Saturday, April 19-20 at th Riviera Hotel & Casino.

Even though Billy Ray was well-know in country music circles, he didn't ga national notoriety until the release o "Achy Breaky Heart." The catchy sing release hit the charts like a bombshe and occupied the number one spot country music for seven weeks. Cou music fans across the country were doing the "Achy Breaky" and the rec sales hit platinum. It wa craze that rivaled the hu hoop.

Back in Las Vegas by popular demand, Billy Ray's engagement coincides with the Rivier Hotel & Casino's 41st anniversary celebration.

Everyone knows Billy Ra Cyrus. The handsome, dashing singer has been household name since people started hearing him back in 1992. His firs album Some Gave All became the biggest-selling debut in history and earned him five Grammy nominations. Despite his sudden rise to fame, Cyrus was anything but an overnight sensation. His success came after a decade of dedication to his craft and his refusal to give up when door after door in Nashville was slammed in his face.

Billy Ray's newest album, Storm in the Heartland, is a stirring account of the suffering a midwestern farmer endured when the Mississippi River overflowed its banks. The selections in the album expose the depth and range of Billy Ray's musical personality and he will be performing some of those songs in his Riviera shows.

Billy Ray Cyrus concerts are 10 p.m. Friday and 9 p.m. Saturday in the Riviera's Grand Ballroom. Tickets are $34.50 and $44.50 plus all applicable fees and service charges. For ticket reservations or additional info., phone (702) 794-9280.

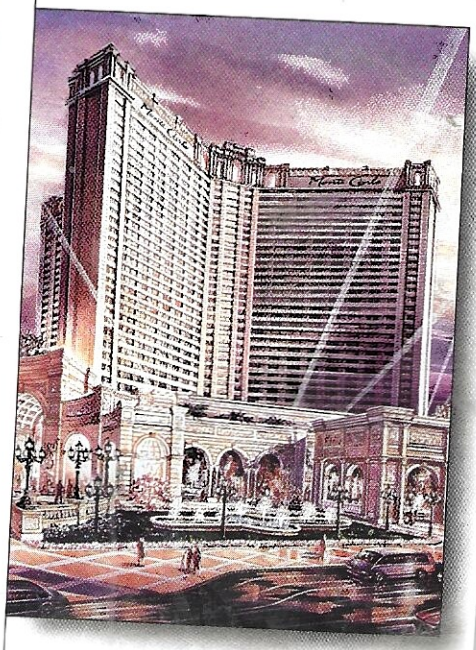
MONTE CARLO TO OPEN THIS SUMMER



Circus Circus Enterprises, Inc., and Mirage Resorts, Inc. have joined to develop the Monte Carlo Resort & Casino, a property that will recreate the grandeur and opulence that surrounds its namesake city on the French Riviera.

Modeled after the famous Place du Casino in Monte Carlo, Monaco, the Monte Carlo Resort & Casino borrows such features from this acclaimed landmark as fanciful arches, chandeliered domes, marble floors, ornate fountains, gas-lit promenades and a Gothic glass and marble registration area overlooking a waterpark.

In addition to its richly appointed guest rooms and suites, hallways and gaming areas, the Monte Carlo Resort & Casino features the Lance Burton Theatre, designed especially for world-famous illusionist Lance Burton. The theatre will include a New York-style lobby, lavish seating for 1,200 people and a proscenium arch fashioned after those found in the great vaudeville theatres.

"Circus Circus and Mirage are the literal inventors of the megaresort in Las Vegas," said Glenn Schaeffer, president and chief financial officer of Circus Circus Enterprises.

The Monte Carlo, scheduled to open June 21, 1996, is located on the south end of the former Dunes site, directly across from the entrance to the MGM. Reservation lines are open now, phone 1-800-311-8999.

DOLPHIN HABITAT

Six bottlenose dolphins have taken up residence in a unique environment on the grounds of The Mirage on the Las Vegas Strip. The dolphins reside in a marine facility that has over one million gallons of man-made sea water, two artificial coral reefs, and state-of-the-art environmental controls. The habitat is open 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sat. and Sun., and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Mon. through Fri. Admission $3; children under ten are admitted free when accompanied by an adult. School districts are encouraged to take advantage of the special educational program.

OMNIMAX THEATRE

Prepare yourself for the greatest sensory experience is in this incredible dome theatre that brings pictures to life. You will feel like you're actually there as Omnimax's 70 mm film and wide-range giant speaker system take your senses for a ride to be remembered. Shows every hour from 2-10 p.m. Sunday-Thursday and noon-11 p.m. Friday & Saturday. Admission is $6-adults, and $4 for children under 12, senior citizens, Caesars Palace guests, the physically challenged & military personnel. Currently showing is "Wings Of Courage" starring Val Kilmer and Elizabeth McGovern. Phone (702) 731-7900 for additional information.

THE FORUM SHOPS AT CAESARS PALACE

Caesars Palace deserves accolades from the Greek and Roman gods for the architecture of their newest venture. The Forum is home to exceptional galleries and specialty shops. The interior design is art in itself, offering a fantasy recreation of an ancient Roman Forum streetscape with classic columns and arches. Also features a changing sky to help you get the feeling of a Roman street. 10 am-11 pm daily. The Festival Fountain show also featured, with state-of-the-art technology projecting graphics on an overhead dome-free, daily on the hour from 10 a.m. until 11 p.m.

MAGIC MOTION MACHINE

The whole family will love these true-to-life rides that use hydraulically-activated seats to simulate movement. The specially-designed seats, combined with a Dolby five-channel sound system and 70 mm Showscan film, will actually make you think you're going up, over and under. Open 10 a.m.-midnight Monday-Thursday; until 1 a.m. Friday & Saturday; and 9 a.m.-midnight on Sunday. Admission is $3 per person. Located at Excalibur Hotel/Casino.

MGM GRAND YOUTH FACILITIES

The MGM Grand offers two exciting areas for kids to enjoy. MGM Grand Youth Center is a day-camp for kids 3-12 years old and offers supervised activities for children of hotel guests. And Wizard's Midway & Arcade is a 30,000-square-foot center for children of all ages. Wizard's Midway features 33 games of skill and the latest state-of-the-art video arcade games. Phone 891-1111 for additional information on activities for children.

SECRETS OF THE LUXOR PYRAMID

Luxor's three cutting-edge attractions weave the mysteries of the pyramid into a trilogy with thrilling forays into the past, present and future. Created by visionary film maker Douglas Trumbull, these high-impact, futuristic "participatory adventures" are designed to enhance the overall theme of the pyramid through a common story line. The attractions are three episodes in a tale about the discovery of an ancient underground temple and the struggle of four people to exploit the temple's incredible powers for good or evil. The trilogy is titled "Secrets of the Luxor Pyramid." Episode One is a thrilling four-minute motion-simulator experience. Episode Two is a multi-media presentation in 3-D. And Episode Three is the world's most steeply raked theater with a vertical screen seven stories tall. Phone (702) 262-4555.

MUTINY BAY AT TREASURE ISLAND

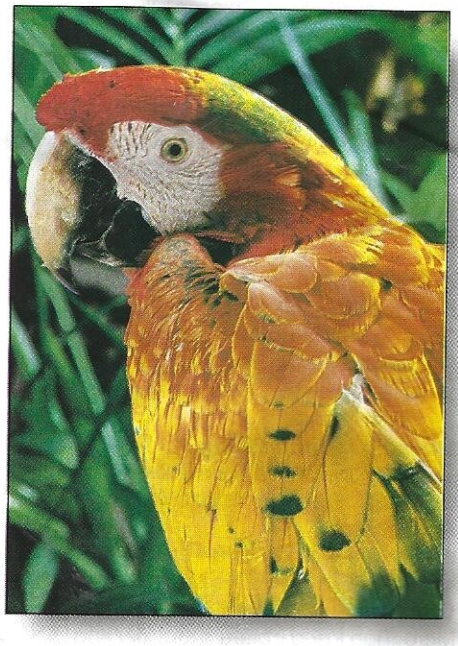
For those who dare to try their hand at the pirate life, intrigue and merriment, mingle in Mutiny Bay. Mutiny Bay offers an array of activities set in an atmosphere of drama, mystery and fantasy. Mutiny Bay is an 18,000-square-foot entertainment center offering video games, pinball and electronically-simulated games. At the centerpiece of Mutiny Bay are the Midway games of skill, where hopeful pirates can try their luck and win treasures aplenty. Call 894-7111 for information.

MGM GRAND ADVENTURES

MGM Grand Adventures features seven rides, five spectacular stage shows, roaming entertainment and a variety of eateries and retail shops. Visitors can "Get In For Nothin' " to get familiar with the park and facilities. If guests would like to "Do It All For Next To Nothin,' " they can purchase a ride and show pass for a one-time charge. Phone (702) 891-1111 for additional information.

MOUNT CHARLESTON

If you want to get back to nature for a few days or just for the afternoon, Mt. Charleston offers hiking, camping, a hotel and two restaurant/lodges less than an hour away. Take Hwy 95 north toward Reno, turn left at the Kyle Canyon turnoff. For more info., phone Mt. Charleston Hotel 1-872-5500 or Mt. Charleston Lodge & Restaurant at 1-386-6899.



WILDLIFE WALK AT THE TROPICANA

Wildlife Walk, the Tropicana's bird and wildlife habitat, is situated on the covered walkway linking the resort's two towers, and features a unique collection of birds and wildlife in natural settings. Visitors to Wildlife Walk will see wildlife ranging from the colorful toucans to pygmy marmosets, which are among the world's smallest monkeys and a species threatened by the increasing destruction of its tropical forest habitat. Free, open 24 hours a day.

TIGER HABITAT

Hundreds of daily visitors are fascinated by the Tiger Habitat at The Mirage where they can watch Royal White Tigers doze or play in an open-air environment. The species of snow-white tiger, which comes from the Himalayas, is extinct in the wild. But thanks to illusionists Siegfried & Roy, the beautiful animals are treated like royalty here. Open 24 hours a day. Admission is free.

All-day unlimited ride pass $13.95 for 10 and up, $9.95 for kids 3-9 (unlimited children's attractions), free for kids under 3 and senior citizens (no rides included). Park open 10 a.m.-10 p.m. Sunday-Thursday & 10 a.m.-midnight Friday & Saturday. Phone (702) 794-3939.

HOOVER DAM

Bordering Nevada and Arizona, Hoover Dam provides economical electrical power for several states. Hoover Dam is one of the man-made wonders of the world. Learn about the dam's history and capabilities by taking a guided tour. Tours are offered 8 a.m.-6:15 p.m. daily. Admission is $5 for adults; children 11 & under are free. Take Hwy 93 s.e. of Las Vegas about 30 miles. Phone 293-8367.

LIBERACE MUSEUM

A welcome diversion from the noise and fast pace of the Las Vegas Strip is the Liberace Museum, located at 1775 East Tropicana. Though it is located only two miles off the strip, it is like traveling to another world. The Museum provides an intimate glimpse into the world of "Mr. Showmanship." Included within the confines of the Museum you will find part of Liberace's antique car and piano collections along with various costumes that he had worn throughout his career.

IMPERIAL PALACE AUTO COLLECTION

The world's finest collection of antique, classic and special interest vehicles spanning nearly 100 years of automotive history. The auto collection features over 750 vehicles, with more than 200 autos on display daily. The vehicles are continually rotated in and out of the collection to give it a fresh appeal for repeat visitors. The Collection is open daily from 9:30 a.m.-11:30 p.m. Adult admission is $6.95 and seniors and kids 12 & under are $3.

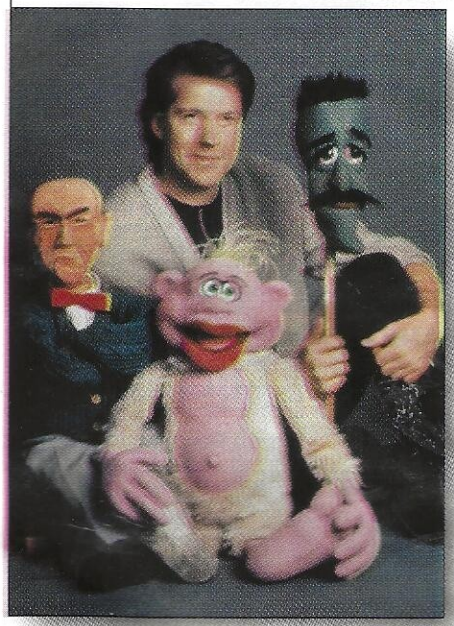
JEFF DUNHAM AND FRIENDS PERFORM AT THE SANDS



Comedian/ventriloquist Jeff Dunham will perform his masterful comedic craft at the Sands Hotel from April 10-21. For information or ticket reservations, phone (702) 733-5451 or 1-800-446-4672, ext. 5451.

Breathing life into an elderly curmudgeon, a purple creature known as a "Woozle" and a self-effacing jalapeño, among other lovable characters, Jeff Dunham is straight man to some of the funniest partners in show business. His comedic skill and impeccable technique serve as sleight of hand, however, drawing attention away from the fact that Dunham is a ventriloquist extraordinaire. "What makes this performer the best at what he does is the believability factor," one reviewer wrote. "Dunham's characters have more personality that a lot of people I know."

The only person to ever win the prestigious "Ventriloquist of the Year" Award two times, he was recently nominated for "Comedian of the Year" by the TNN Music City News Country Awards. He has also appeared on "The Tonight Show" more than any other ventriloquist.

Don't miss comedian/ventriloquist Jeff Dunham at the Sands April 10-21. For tickets or additional information, phone (702) 733-5453.

THE FOUR TOPS PERFORMS AT THE MGM GRAND

The Four Tops (left to right)--Lawrence Payton, Abdul "Duke" Fakir, Renaldo "Obie" Benson and Levi Stubbs--have been together for 31 years, constantly producing songs of love, happiness, and romantic heartbreak in the quintessential Detroit Sound.

No other popular quartet has stayed with original personnel intact for as long as the Four Tops. And no other group associated with the American '60's sound has succeeded in remaining as fresh, joyful, lively and timely. The Four Tops spun a special magic that continues to delight audiences from 5 to 50 the world over.

The Four Tops still live in Detroit, a fact which each man feels has contributed to the naturalness and humanity of their sound, and their success. Today, they are leaders in their community, active in civic projects and involved in Detroit's renaissance. All are married and have children, and all of the wives and kids are close friends--a complete, extended, Four Tops family. The group continues to tour, record and set their sights on new professional goals. But mostly, the Four Tops just keep on singing.

The Four Tops perform at the MGM Grand's Hollywood Theatre April 11-17. Shows are 9 p.m. nightly and tickets are $36. Phone 1-800-929-1111 for tickets and additional information.

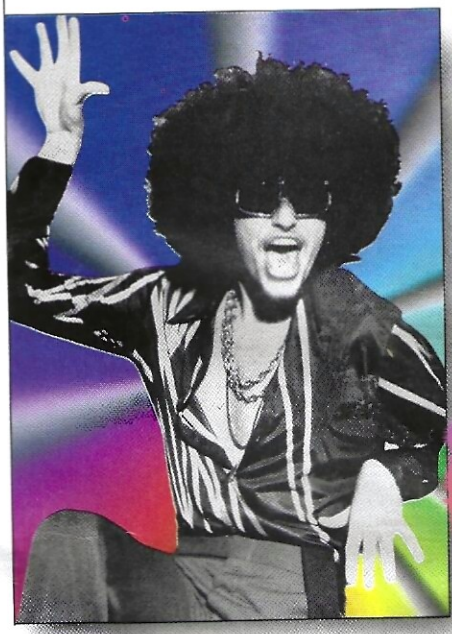
THE BOOGIE KNIGHTS GROOVE AT CLUB RIO



Everybody has a favorite song or two from the seventies - we hate to admit it, but the Seventies put out some of the most danceable music ever made. Not only do the Boogie Knights freely admit their love for the Seventies, they embrace the music as their own - with tongue fully in cheek.

In the winter of 1992, five demented L.A. musicians formed the Boogie Knights to pay tribute to the funky sounds of the 70's, complete with polyester suits, John Travolta dance moves and eight-inch afros. The Boogie Knights' show has been described as hilariously creative and surprisingly authentic with superb vocals and outstanding musicianship. The Boogie Knights are an entertaining alternative.

Playing their own instruments with absolutely no lip-syncing, the Boogie Knights recreate over forty 70's classics, including "That's The Way" by K.C. & The Sunshine Band, "I Was Made for Loving You" by Kiss, "Super Freak" by Rick James, "Funky Town" by Lipps Inc., "Stayin' Alive" by the Bee Gee's and of course "Y.M.C.A." by The Village People.

Catch the Boogie Knights every Wednesday night at the Rio Suite Hotel & Casino's Club Rio. The doors open at 11 p.m. Ladies always receive free admission. Phone (702) 252-7777 for additional information.
